

We are looking for a self-motivated Sales Professional to join our Sales team in Calgary, Alberta. The position is full-time and may consist of days, evenings and weekends

The ideal candidate will be able to work independently or as well part of a team, while thriving in an environment that emphasizes effective communication.

Position overview:

Sales Professional - Sporting Goods Industry

T.Litzen Sports Ltd, the Canadian leader in Team and Institutional sporting goods is expanding and currently looking to add a Sales Professional in various regions

As the exclusive provider and distributor for lines such as of Nike Team & Fundamentals, Riddell football, Battle, Founders Group and much more. We are a major wholesaler and distributor of these and other well-known brands and products that support programs nationwide. We're are looking to further strengthen our market share and add to our nationwide team of sales professionals.

Candidates should have a passion for sports, must possess strong social and organizational skills, enjoy community involvement, be highly energetic and be self motivated with exceptional communication skills.

Essential competencies and requirements include strong computer skills, including Microsoft Office, possess a valid drivers license and vehicle, be willing to submit a to background check and be bondable. This opportunity offers extremely competitive compensation packages and bonus opportunities.

Preference will be given to those with post secondary education, relative experience and with passion for sports and athletics.

Please email your resume to: Careers@tlitzen.com