

Sales Representative

Outside-Sales Professional - Sporting Goods Industry

T.Litzen Sports Ltd, the Canadian leader in Team and Institutional sporting goods is expanding and currently looking to add Sales Professionals to various regions.

As the exclusive provider and distributor for lines such as of Nike Team, Riddell football, as well as various other well-known brands and products, we are looking to further strengthen our market share and add to our nationwide team of sales professionals.

Candidates should have a passion for sports and must possess strong social and organizational skills, enjoy community involvement, be highly energetic, self motivated with exceptional communication skills and computer skills.

Essential competencies and requirements include: Microsoft Office competent, valid drivers license/own vehicle, willing to submit a to background check and be bondable. This opportunity offers extremely competitive compensation packages and bonus opportunities as well as medical benefits after introductory period.

Preference will be given to those with post secondary education, relative experience and with passion for sports and athletics.

Please submit updated resume with cover letter to:

careers@tlitzen.com

Job Type: Full-time

Required language: English